

Proposition A: Affordable Housing

Proposition A Total: $250 million

This proposition would provide funding for the creation, rehabilitation, and retention of affordable rental and ownership housing.

The types of projects and programs to be undertaken as part of this bond proposition, if approved, may include, but are not limited to, the following:

Land Acquisition $100 million

Funding for the Austin Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC) to acquire and hold land, including acquisition of publicly owned land, for future use, with the potential to achieve multiple community goals, including affordable housing development. The land can be developed by AHFC or be offered to nonprofit or private, for-profit affordable housing developers.

Rental Housing Development Assistance Projects $94 million

Funding for the Rental Housing Development Assistance (RHDA) program, which increases or maintains the supply of affordable rental housing by addressing the rental housing needs and priorities identified by the City of Austin's Strategic Housing Blueprint, including Permanent Supportive Housing and other affordable housing facilities.

Acquisition & Development (A&D) Homeownership Program $28 million

Funding for the A&D Homeownership Program, which addresses the need for affordably priced ownership housing within the city. Housing developed through this program is to be owned and occupied by income-qualified households.

Home Repair Program $28 million

Funding to carry out minor home repairs and rehabilitation throughout the community. Through the GO Repair! program, the City contracts with qualified nonprofit organizations that provide repairs to income-qualified homeowners' homes.

Ballot Language:

The issuance of $250,000,000 in tax supported general obligation bonds and notes for planning, constructing, renovating, improving, and equipping affordable housing facilities for low income and moderate income persons and families, and acquiring land and interests in land and property necessary to do so, funding loans and grants for affordable housing, and funding affordable housing programs, as may be permitted by law; and the levy of a tax sufficient to pay for the bonds and notes.
